

1. PURPOSE

AltaGas is committed to having a workplace where everyone is treated in a professional manner, with respect and dignity. We are dedicated to creating and maintaining a workplace where personnel can carry out their duties in a safe environment, without fear of discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, or workplace violence.

2. SCOPE

This policy applies to all personnel and to all individuals who are present in the workplace, including, but not limited to, suppliers, customers, guests or other members of the public. Personnel should also reference any local procedures or guidelines applicable in their workplace.

3. POLICY STATEMENTS

3.1. Reporting

Any allegation of discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, workplace violence or other disrespectful, inappropriate or offensive behaviour will be taken seriously and dealt with promptly by AltaGas. Complaints should be reported to your manager/supervisor, another leader with whom you feel comfortable, or Human Resources personnel, using the procedures applicable to your workplace location.

3.2. AltaGas Commitment

AltaGas is committed to maintaining a workplace and culture of respect, dignity and safety, free from discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, and workplace violence. In furtherance of this commitment, we will:

- Base hiring or placement decisions on an individual's qualifications for the position to be filled;
- Administer compensation, benefits, transfers, company-sponsored training, and social and recreational programs without regard to any protected ground;
- Communicate to all supervisors, managers and employees that treating individuals with respect, dignity and in accordance with all AltaGas policies and applicable legal requirements is an essential part of their responsibilities;
- Provide safe and effective options for personnel to submit complaints;

- Investigate, address and resolve complaints in an objective, respectful, consistent, and timely manner;
- Keep any investigative processes confidential to the extent possible, and involve only those people deemed necessary to address the complaint;
- Support and protect from retaliation personnel who act in good faith in reporting an incident of discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, workplace violence or other disrespectful, inappropriate or offensive behaviour or participating in a workplace investigation of such matters; and
- Take necessary action in response to findings of discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, workplace violence, retaliation or other disrespectful, unprofessional, inappropriate or offensive behaviour, including removing individuals from the workplace and/or, in the case of employees, disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment for cause and/or impacts to performance assessment and compensation, and other appropriate privileges of employment, including incentive compensation; and, for consultants, contractors and contingency workers, failure to observe the standards set forth in this policy may be considered a breach of contract resulting in termination of the contract.

AltaGas prohibits reprisals and retaliation against any individual who, in good faith:

- Has made a complaint;
- Identified or opposed a practice that they reasonably believe constitutes discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying or workplace violence;
- Participated in an investigation, proceeding or hearing under this policy or any applicable complaint process; or
- Sought information or exercised a right under applicable law with respect to discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, or workplace violence.

3.3. Personnel and Supervisors' Commitments

AltaGas expects that all individuals will do their part to ensure that the workplace is respectful and professional.

All personnel agree to:

- Not engage in discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, workplace violence or other disrespectful, inappropriate or offensive behaviour;
- Report any instances they reasonably believe to be discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, and workplace violence, whether they were the target or a witness;
- Err on the side of caution if uncertain whether an incident involves discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, or workplace violence and report the incident in accordance with this policy; and
- Cooperate with investigations and provide any details of incidents they have experienced or witnessed.

In addition, AltaGas requires that personnel maintain the confidentiality of any investigative process.

Supervisors/Managers also agree to:

- Notify Human Resources immediately (or refer to a more senior leader if deemed appropriate) to deal with all reports of alleged discrimination, harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, and/or workplace violence that are brought to their attention or incidents personally observed. Under no circumstances should a complaint be dismissed or downplayed without appropriate action being taken; and

- Seek assistance and guidance from the appropriate senior management or Human Resources personnel so they may take appropriate action under this policy, including addressing issues with their direct and indirect reports before they become larger or more widespread; and
- Participate in training offered to supervisors by AltaGas in support of this policy and ensure their direct and indirect reports participate in similar training offered by AltaGas.

Nothing in this policy prevents personnel from seeking other external remedies, including those under applicable law or statute, including any applicable human rights legislation.

4. DEFINITIONS

In this policy, the following terms are used and described below:

“AltaGas” or “we” means AltaGas Ltd. and includes its subsidiaries and affiliates.

“bullying” means, unless otherwise defined by applicable law, any inappropriate conduct or comment towards any individual that the actor knows or reasonably ought to know would cause the individual to be physically, psychologically or emotionally humiliated or intimidated. Bullying may arise from a single incident or from a series of incidents, depending on the severity of the behaviour.

Bullying includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- verbal aggression, threatening gestures, insults or calling an individual derogatory names;
- vandalizing or sabotaging the work product, personal belongings or work equipment of an individual;
- spreading malicious gossip or rumours about an individual;
- engaging in harmful or offensive hazing practices;
- physical assault or verbal threats (this could also constitute “workplace violence”);
- personal attacks based on an individual’s private life and/or personal traits;
- humiliating and intimidating comments or gestures;
- engaging in targeted social or professional isolation, including but not limited to, purposefully withholding necessary information or access to meetings or other opportunities without legitimate business reasons; and
- engaging in, or assisting or encouraging, any of the above using computer or other electronic communication devices, whether by means of social networks, text messaging, instant messaging, websites, electronic mail, voicemail, or otherwise.

Bullying does not include reasonable actions taken by a manager or supervisor to address an individual’s job performance or workplace conduct.

“complaint” means a complaint under this policy relating to an act of discrimination, bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, sexual harassment or workplace violence.

“cyberbullying” means bullying behavior that takes place through the use of computers, cellphones or other electronic devices, including, but not limited to the following:

- Sending unsolicited and/or threatening e-mail;
- Encouraging others to send an individual unsolicited and/or threatening e-mail or to overwhelm an individual with e-mail messages;
- Sending viruses by e-mail (electronic sabotage);

- Spreading rumors;
- Making defamatory comments about an individual online;
- Sending inappropriate negative messages directly to an individual;
- Impersonating an individual online by sending an inflammatory, controversial, enticing or inciting message which causes others to respond negatively to an individual;
- Harassing an individual during a live chat;
- Leaving abusive, messages online, including social media sites;
- Sending an individual pornography or other graphic material that is knowingly or should reasonably be known to be offensive as well as sending “memes” or similar graphics that are known, or should reasonably be known, to be discriminatory or harassing, especially based on a protected ground; and
- Creating online content that depicts an individual in negative ways.

“discrimination” means any form of unequal treatment, whether that treatment imposes extra burdens or denies benefits, based on a protected ground. Discrimination may be intentional or unintentional, and may involve direct actions that are discriminatory on their face, or it may involve rules, practices or procedures that appear neutral, but have the effect of disadvantaging a person on the basis of a protected ground.

“harassment” means conduct or comments, whether verbal, written or physical in nature, that a) a reasonable person would consider unwelcome or offensive, b) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an employee’s ability to perform his or her job, or c) adversely affects an individual’s employment opportunities. Harassment may arise from a single incident or from a series of incidents, depending on the severity of the behaviour. Harassment includes sexual harassment. Behaviours need not be directed at any one individual in order to be considered harassment if such behaviours create an intimidating, offensive or hostile work environment. Behaviours need not be intended as harassment to constitute harassment. Examples of harassment may include, but are not limited to:

- making remarks, jokes or innuendos related any protected ground or which are otherwise unwelcome or offensive;
- displaying or circulating offensive objects, pictures, derogatory or demeaning posters, cartoons, graffiti or materials, whether in print form or other form, or via e-mail or other electronic means;
- singling out an individual or humiliating, demeaning, or “teasing” an individual; or
- ridiculing an individual because of dress, hair or style, language, or other characteristic that is related to any protected ground.

“personnel” means, in relation to AltaGas, all directors, officers, employees, contingency workers, contractors, consultants, employees of contractors or consultants and students representing AltaGas or engaged in AltaGas’ business or social activities or present in the workplace.

“policy” means this Respectful Workplace Policy.

“protected ground” means any characteristic protected by applicable law which may include race, colour, religious belief, national origin, ethnicity, ancestry, age, gender/sex, marital status, physical disability, mental disability, sexual orientation, or other protected class. A protected ground may also be referred to as a protected trait or protected characteristic.

“sexual harassment” is a form of harassment that may include:

- unwelcome remarks, jokes or innuendoes about gender, gender identity, gender expression, sex or sexual orientation;

- unwanted comments or questions about an individual's personal or sex life;
- refusing to work with others because of their gender, gender identity, gender expression, sex or sexual orientation;
- displaying or distributing sexually explicit or otherwise offensive material through print or electronic media;
- derogatory or degrading comments about a person's body;
- leering or other offensive or sexually aggressive gestures;
- unwelcome advances, invitations or propositions of a sexual nature;
- advances, invitations or propositions of a sexual nature, which might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived as placing a condition on a person's future employment, assignments or opportunity for promotion or training;
- making or threatening reprisals for refusing sexual advances; or
- unwanted physical contact or verbal abuse or threats of a sexual nature.

"workplace" means all AltaGas premises and any other location where personnel engage in company business, activities or social events where the conduct of an individual may have an effect on the workplace or workplace relations, and may extend to social media activities. This policy is applicable in all jurisdictions in which AltaGas operates and is subject to applicable law in such jurisdictions.

"workplace violence" means any threatened, attempted or actual conduct that causes or is likely to cause physical or psychological injury or harm to an individual and may include:

- the use of physical force against or by an individual that causes or could cause physical or psychological injury. This includes physical acts such as punching, hitting, kicking, pushing, damaging property, or throwing objects;
- the attempted use of physical force against or by an individual that could cause physical or psychological injury;
- an action or statement (or series of actions or statements) reasonably believed to be a threat of physical or psychological harm or a threat to safety or security in the workplace;
- bringing a weapon of any kind to the workplace or possessing a weapon of any kind while carrying out company business (except as is specifically required for the performance of an individual's duties), threatening to bring a weapon to the workplace, or any behaviour or action in violation of, or not excused under, the applicable AltaGas Weapons-Free Workplaces policy; or
- domestic or sexual violence.
